

International Christian Maritime Association

CODE OF CONDUCT

Prepared by the ICMA Membership Subcommittee, recommended by ICMA Executive Committee and adopted by the Annual General Meeting in Amsterdam on 19th October 2001 (agenda item 8)
Scripture quotation revised to New International Version by the Executive Committee on 6 May 2010

Membership of ICMA carries an obligation to abide by the Constitution of the Association and of this Code of Conduct.

The Mission of ICMA :

The seafarers of the world remind us of the ultimate purpose of all God's plans: "And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come" (Matthew 24,14 NIV). In a fragmented and divided society, it is ICMA 's mission to promote unity, peace and tolerance. ICMA was founded for promoting and co-ordinating Christian ecumenical co-operation in maritime ministry.

Chaplains and staff of all ICMA Member Societies at local, national and international level are therefore to:

- a) Show an unconditional love to the seafarer as a human being, created in the image of God, and a sincere respect for her/his personal values and beliefs;
- b) Serve seafarers and their dependants of all nationalities, religions, cultures, language, sex or race;
- c) Fight prejudice, intolerance and injustice of any kind;
- d) Respect the diversity of ICMA Members and Churches and to develop that which unites them;
- e) Respect the loyalty of those engaged in maritime ministry to their particular ecclesiastical discipline and tradition and refrain from proselytising seafarers;
- f) Co-operate with persons, organisations and institutions, Christian or non-Christian, which work for the welfare of seafarers.
